

CNIA/ONIG Conference 2017

Informatics: Engaging, Enabling and Empowering Nurses in Digital Health

Keynote

Judy Murphy RN, FACMI, FHIMSS, FAAN

Chief Nursing Officer &

Director-Global Business Services

IBM Healthcare

Saturday June 3, 2017

6th floor Auditorium, Lawrence S. Bloomberg, Faculty of Nursing
University of Toronto 155 College Street, Toronto, Ontario

Time	Title	Speaker
0800-0830	Registration and Continental Breakfast 6 th floor lobby
0830-0845	Welcome	Peggy White, President CNIA Nancy Cunningham, President ONIG
0845-0945	Nursing's Unique Role in Patient Engagement for Population Health	Judy Murphy RN, FACMI, FHIMSS, FAAN, Chief Nursing Officer & Director- Global Business Services at IBM

	Sponsored by IBM	Healthcare
0945-1015	Coffee and Networking – 6 th floor lobby
1015-1115	Engaging Nurses in Understanding and Using Data Standards
	Jurisdictional Data Standards: Exploring the National Need	Andrea MacLean, BSc, MLT Director, Interoperability Standards Canada Health Infoway
	Advancing Nursing Data Standards in Canada	Lynn Nagle, Assistant Professor Lawrence S. Bloomberg, Faculty of Nursing, University of Toronto
1115-1215	Engaging, Enabling and Empowering Nurses Through Social Media
	More than LinkedIN: The Evolving Social Media Presence of Nursing	Tracie Risling, RN, BA, BSN, MN, PhD. Assistant Professor, University of Saskatchewan
	Oh SNapp ² - Lessons Learned -The Implementation of the Saskatchewan Nursing Application (SNapp)	Shelly Luhning, RN, MN, Saskatchewan Polytechnic
1215-1315	Lunch
1315-1415	Enabling Evidence Informed Practice through Digital Health
	Engaging Nurses and Nurse Managers to Leverage Data to Drive Quality Improvement	Lianne Jeffs, RN, BScN, MSc, PhD, FAAN, Associate Professor Lawrence S. Bloomberg, Faculty of Nursing, University of Toronto
	Enablers of Practice Based Evidence – Big Data & Data Science	Sally Remus, NI Doctoral Student, Arthur Labatt Family School of Nursing, Western University
1415-14:45	Empowering Patients and Families through Digital Health
	An Integrated Clinical Telehealth Network	Eryn Tedesco, RN, MHA, Director Clinical eHealth Initiatives, First Nations Health Authority, British Columbia
14:45-1615	The Future of Informatics in Canada
14:45-1530	Emerging Nurse Informaticians Panel: Planning for our Future Moderator: Richard Booth, RN, PhD	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Gillian Strudwick, Lawrence S. Bloomberg Faculty of Nursing, University of Toronto Sabrina Millis, Saskatchewan Collaborative Bachelor of Science in Nursing, Saskatchewan Polytechnic and University of Regina

		3. Brittany McBride, Master of Health Informatics, University of Toronto
1530-1615	CNIA Jurisdictional Panel – Advancing an Informatics Agenda in Canada Moderator: Peggy White, RN, MN	1. Pamela Farthing RN, BA, MSc., Faculty, School of Nursing, Undergraduate Adjunct Professor University of Regina & Saskatchewan Polytechnic 2. Leanne M. Currie, RN, PhD Associate Professor University of British Columbia 3. Helen Edwards, Director, Clinical Informatics and Technology Assisted Programs, Sick Kids
1615-1630	Closing	Peggy White, President CNIA Nancy Cunningham, President ONIG