

Education Day

Friday, November 23, 2018
Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH)
 Russell Street site – Room 2022
 33 Russell Street (Russell and Spadina)
 Toronto, Ontario

“Looking Ahead at What Health Informatics Can Do”

0830-0900	Registration/Breakfast
0900-0930	Welcome Remarks – Nancy Cunningham – ONIG & Heather Sulkers – Director of Clinical Informatics
0930-1030	Beyond Implementing Electronic Health Records: What Nursing Informatics Professionals Need To Know About Artificial Intelligence And Machine Learning – presented by Linda Kaleis, MEMOTEXT Corporation
1030-1045	Coffee/Tea/Networking Break
1045-1215	Looking Ahead at What Informatics Can Do: Emerging Informatics Research – Panel and Q&A Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lydia Sequeria, PhD Candidate, University of Toronto • Nelson Shen, PhD Candidate, University of Toronto • Jenny Shi from ThoughtSpot/CAMH. https://mythoughtspot.ca/
1215-1300	Lunch/Networking
1300-1400	Supporting Nurse Leaders Acquisition of Informatics Competencies - Presentation & Discussion- Gillian Strudwick, Scientist, CAMH

1400-1415	Discussion Forum – Regional Check In – ONIG
1415-1500	PODS – Patient Oriented Discharge Summary (PODS) – Amy Bellisle, Clinical Informatics – Georgian Bay General Hospital
1500-1515	Closing Remarks – Nancy Cunningham – ONIG

Registration Costs include Breakfast, Lunch and Refreshments

Registration Information:

In Person	Via OTN	Via Webcast
Members in Advance - $30 Members at the Door - $40 Non Members - $50 Students - $20	Free – 15 spots available Register at www.onig.ca One person per facility	$15.00 Register at www.onig.ca
Deadline November 15, 2018	Deadline November 15, 2018	Deadline November 15, 2018

The OTN and Webcast link will be sent to you by email by the week of November 19th, 2018. Your site OTN contact must register your site with OTN.

All college and university students involved in healthcare who register, pay and attend the November education day will receive a one year complimentary ONIG membership - who have not previously received one.

Any questions please email Mary at education@onig.on.ca